

Philipps

Universität
Marburg

MO:VE 2021 MarburgOnline: VirtualExchange 2021

In times when traveling is restricted, MO:VE 2021 is a great opportunity to take courses at Philipps-Universität Marburg and improve your intercultural competences without the need to go abroad.

Participants can

- Take online-classes in various subjects
- Attend our virtual Orientation Program for international students
- Take online German language classes
- Get credits and a Transcript of Records
- Work with German and international students

If you are currently enrolled at one of our partner universities, MO:VE 2021 is free of charge.

When?

April - July (4 months)

What's it all about?

Subject courses from Marburg semester catalogue (in English or German), German Language Courses

Target audience

Students of all subjects (Fluency in German is no prerequisite for many courses; a growing number of classes are taught in English.)

Registration:

If you would like to register for MO:VE 2021, please be so kind and complete our online application form. The link will be published on our website.

Registration deadline:

April 1st, 2021

If you would like to participate in our virtual orientation program (March, 22 – 24), please be so kind and send us an email by March 20, 2021.

Website: www.uni-marburg.de/marburg-online-virtual-exchange

Contact information: mo-ve@uni-marburg.de